Mr. Allen W. Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence

My Dear Director:

The Citizens for Eisenhower Committee were successful two years ago in electing their candidate. They are now turning their attention to keeping in office Republican members of the Senate and the Congress who have supported the policies of President Eisenhower during the past two years.

Mr. Edward Burling Jr. has appointed me as chairman of a committee to interest individuals and groups in purchasing tickets for a dinner being arranged by the Citizens Committee for Eisenhower to be held at the Statler Hotel on Thursday, October 14 which date coincides with the birthday of the President. The tables seat ten at a cost of $25 a plate.

I, like senior members of the executive departments have commitments in my own state, but it is so important that we retain in office the four Republican congressmen in Maryland and the three Republican congressmen in Virginia that I feel justified in requesting each one of the executive departments to club together and take two tables for the above mentioned dinner. If the officers themselves cannot be present, the tickets can be given to members of their staff. I enclose herewith subscription card.

Very sincerely yours,

Charles S. Dewey
